1. The Regional Enterprise for Collections No. 3, Iasi, Rumania, is supervised by the DCA (Directiunea Colectarii si Achizitionari - Salvaging, Collection and Supply), which, in turn, comes under the jurisdiction of the Rumanian Ministry of Light Industries. [] there exist 6 - 7 similar regional enterprises under DCA in Rumania. Their object is the collection of hides, hemp, and all sorts of waste, as for instance, bones, used iron, et cetera.
2. The organization of Regional Enterprise for Collections No. 3, is as follows:
 - a. Manager: He knows nothing about the business, as he is appointed for political reasons.
 - b. Accountancy: One bookkeeper.
 - c. Responsible Storekeepers: There are three Storekeepers, each one of whom is responsible for a certain area. His permanent seat is located in the center of this area, where he has at his disposal a depot. One accountant, a few employees and laborers assist him. From his depot the collected materials are dispatched to the big depots of DCA or to factories, according to instructions issued by DCA. The office at Iasi serves only as a Registration and Pay Office.
3. The destination of collected materials is as follows:
 - a. Cattle hides are sent to the factories at Dermate and Bacau.
 - b. Lambskins are sent to the DCA depot in Bucharest, whence they are exported.
 - c. Waste is sent to the factory at Iasi.
 - d. Bones are sent to the factory at Maresesti, which is the only factory in Rumania manufacturing glue.
